BEEF BARONS MEET FIRST DEFEAT

Judge Kohlsaas Quashed Writ of Habeas Corpus That Delayed Trial

JAIL SENTENCES LOOM NEARER FOR PACKERS

Kohlsaas Held That Circuit Court Had No Authority to Review Case

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Jail sentences for J. Ogden Armour and nine of his associates at the head of the beef trust, became perceptibly nearer here today, when Federal Circuit Judge Kohlsaas, in whose court the packers are on trial for violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, quashed the writ of habeas corpus obtained by the beef barons as an expedient to delay the hearing of their cases. It is probable that the case of the packers will now go to trial on its merits.

Judge Kohlsaas's decision was based on the ground that Federal District Judge Carpenter, before whom the trial is scheduled to start Monday, has full jurisdiction. He ruled that for the Federal Circuit Court to interfere now would be reviewing the case, which is not within the Circuit Court's authority.

Under Judge Kohlsaas's decision, the government's attorneys believe the case will surely be started on next Monday.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Immediately after Judge Kohlsaas had quashed the habeas corpus writ, Attorney Mayer announced that the packers would appeal, intimating that they would do so unless they were allowed to ask the Superior Federal Court for a mandamus or writ of certiorari which would act as a supersedeas to the trial on Monday.

Next they will return to Los Angeles, go from there to San Diego and thence to El Centro and through the Imperial Valley.

SHERIFF HANDS THEM $900 IN WALNUTS

Officers Surprise Woman With Property She Did Not Know Was Hers

VIGOROUS WORK BRINGS RESULTS

Review of Record Shows Excellent Handling of Difficult Situation

Yesterday Sheriff Ruddock, Constable Squires and Deputy Constable Law turned over to Mrs. S. C. Leonard of Anaheim, walnuts worth about $900.

They were walnuts that Mrs. Leonard did not know she owned until the sheriff's office conducted the raid that resulted in the arrest of Jesus Valenzuela.

With this transaction the sheriff added another chapter to his vigorous dealings with walnut thieves. Altogether the sheriff has returned to owners about $900 worth of walnuts, and he has on hand $50 worth of walnuts and walnut meats that he knows were stolen but for which he has found no owners. These nuts were found in the possession of a camp at Anaheim, and the Mexicans who had them pleaded guilty to stealing them and were sent to jail.

The first round-up made by the sheriff was of a number of Italians. In their possession were found walnuts stolen from Henry Frederick and A. I. Stewart, both of Placentia, owing to the difficulty of getting the owners to positively identify the product, the authorities were unable to secure convictions, but they gave the Italians a jolt that will make them fight shy of Orange County should they decide to be in the pilfering business next year.

Mrs. Leonard had Valenzuela picking walnuts for her for one-third of the crop. Valenzuela and his family managed to hide out enough nuts each day so that when the season was completed Mrs. Leonard had but thirty-one sacks and Valenzuela forty-one, which, as any one can see, gives Valenzuela a full one-third, and then some. Mrs. Leonard thought her walnut crop was rather light, but so cleverly had the Mexicans done their stealing she was not suspicious. The first she knew of the thefts was when the officers presented her with $300 worth of walnuts, something over 2200 pounds.

Valenzuela has not yet paid his find of $250.

There were evidences that Barger died fighting for his life but he was unarmed. His revolver was found locked in his trunk.

Ammunition and Guns to Rebels Over Border

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—General Wood today telegraphed to the commanders of all army posts along the Southern border, orders to hold themselves in readiness to dispatch troops immediately to the Mexican border whenever the proper federal authorities should ask them to do so.

The Mexican situation is acute, and reports made today by the State Department confirm the rumors of revolutionary activities along the border. Steps are being taken to restore the military guard, maintained during the revolution last spring, to prevent the passage of arms and ammunition from this country across the border to the insurgents.

ON MISSION TO ECUADOR

Miss Christine Kerl Starts for New Field of Labor Among the Spanish

Miss Christine Kerl, who has spent the last five years in Spanish mission work in this country, a greater part of it in Santa Ana, leaves on Monday for Guayaquillo, Ecuador, South America, where she will do mission work among the Spanish. She does not go as the representative of any organization, but will do her work on faith that she will be provided with a living, as has been the case here.

Willie Rice, the Spanish boy of whom Miss Kerl is guardian, will go with her. They sail from San Francisco on Nov. 23.

During the term of Sheriff Lacy, Miss Kerl held frequent meetings among the prisoners at the county jail. On one occasion as she was leaving two Mexican desperadoes, Rosario Sainz and Alejo Machias, overpowered the sheriff and locked him and Miss Kerl in jail with the prisoners while the two Mexicans made good their escape.

Imperial Valley is becoming recognized as a winter feeding ground for a vast territory in the southwest. Thousands of sheep also have been shipped here within the past two months for winter feeding.

LEGATION WARNS AMERICANS TO RETIRE TO TREATY PORTS

JAPAN WOULD ACT FOR ALL POWERS IN WARRING CHINA

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Japan has asked the powers to allow the Mikado's government to act for them in China, according to semi-official information given out here today. In its request, Japan is alleged to have pointed out that it has two full divisions of troops in Korea, and can make any desired movement at a moment's notice.

The Japanese government said that if ordered to take charge of the situation, it would do so in the interest of all the powers concerned.

The Japanese offer is interpreted here as a move to prevent too firm a foothold in the country, which Japan regards as being within its special sphere of influence.

HIGH COMPLIMENT FOR MCDANNALD

The Los Angeles Express in a write-up of the visits of tourists to the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce says:

"Especially interesting is the Orange County display. D. W. McDannald, representative of that county, is shown explaining the growth of several immense stock pumpkins. These are the largest ever shown here, one weighing 225 pounds. Orange County is on record as owing a great deal of her growth to the intelligent promotion work carried on at the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and Mr. McDannald, who is an agricultural expert, is an ideal representative."

ANOTHER JUROR IS PASSED FOR CAUSE IN MCNAMARA CASE

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 18.—One additional tentative juror was secured at today's session of the McNamara trial in the person of J. H. Marshall, a retired hardware man of this city.

It was in September, 1909, that the first action was taken toward holding an exposition in San Diego to celebrate the opening of the Panama Canal to commerce. Since that time the pluck of a city of 40,000 people has been strained half a dozen times. Civic ownership, civic management of public utilities and the greatest building boom ever seen in a city of its size have all come to San Diego as a part of the work of preparation for the exposition.

SCHOOL BOARD PRESIDENT STATES FACTS IN THE CASE

To the Voters of Santa Ana:

It has come to the knowledge of the members of the Board of Education that a report is being circulated that the board has selected a site for the Polytechnic High School. No such site has been selected; no site is under consideration and I am sure no member of the board has determined in advance for what site to vote. It is our intention after the authorization of the bond issue to advertise for sites and after consultation with the citizens to select the site which seems to meet the approval of a majority of the citizens. The all important question is not the site, but to secure the school.

It is being claimed that the authorization of these bond issues will increase the tax rate 45 cents. No such increase will result from these issues. No one can know at the present time what advance, if any, will result. There will be a new assessment next year and no one can know how great an increase there will be in the amount of the assessment rolls. At any rate a Polytechnic High School will pay for itself many times over. The special school tax rate of San

FINES COLLECTED FOR AUTO SPEEDING

Two ten-dollar gold pieces were added to the city treasury yesterday by City Recorder Willson. One of the fines was collected from George W. BEGIN CONSTRUCTION OF FIRST BUILDING

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 18.—Without any flourish of trumpet, no confusion and no celebration, a big gang of men and teams began the actual construction of the first building for the Panama-California International Exposition Monday morning, Nov. 6. The exposition is to open January 1, 1915 and remain open the entire year, or until midnight, December 31, 1915.

It was in September, 1909, that the first action was taken toward holding an exposition in San Diego to celebrate the opening of the Panama Canal to commerce. Since that time the pluck of a city of 40,000 people has been strained half a dozen times. Civic ownership, civic management of public utilities and the greatest building boom ever seen in a city of its size have all come to San Diego as a part of the work of preparation for the exposition.

U. S. Grant, Jr., son of the great general and president, is the president of the exposition. D. C. Collier is director general. Bankers, merchants and capitalists, whose private fortunes amount to over $60,000,000, are on the board of directors. These gentlemen have guaranteed the cost of the exposition so that construction will proceed without interruption until the exposition is finished and ready for the millions of sightseers who will come to the Pacific coast in 1915.

The general style of architecture is to be of the Spanish-Colonial type, the well known and beautiful "Mission" buildings of California furnishing the motif of the architectural composition. The foremost architect of the world in this style of building, Bertram G. Goodhue, is designing the buildings. Frank P. Allen, Jr., the man that built the Alaska-Yukon exposition, is in charge of the construction.

Every possible arrangement to insure the most unique and beautiful exposition ever held is being made, and the success of the effort is assured.

GREAT BATTLE REPORTED AS RAGING IN NANKING

Rebels Outnumber Imperialists; Another Massacre of Manchus Expected

SHANGHAI, Nov. 18.—Reports from up the river indicate that a battle is proceeding at Nanking with the Chinese rebels slowly advancing against the desperate defense of the imperialists.

The fighting started with sharp skirmishes from a dozen different quarters, with an ultimate attack by the main rebel force.

The desperate fighting between the rebels and imperialists at Nanking continues, according to rumors reaching here. The imperialists there are outnumbered and the indications are for a rebel victory. The city may fall to the revolutionists before night.

If Nanking is captured, another massacre, with the Manchus as victims, seems inevitable. Reports that Admiral Sah Cheng Ping had been captured, have reached here, and the reports are generally credited.

AMERICANS WARNED BY LEGATION—OUTBREAK MENACES

PEKIN, Nov. 18.—The American legation today ordered all Americans to leave the interior for the treaty ports. The outlook for an anti-foreign outbreak is becoming more threatening.

CLUSTER LIGHT IS DISCUSSED

M. and M. Committee and Twenty Property Owners
Held Conference

A committee of the Merchants' & Manufacturers' Association held a meeting last night with about twenty men who own property on Fourth and Main streets, for the purpose of discussing the proposed installation of cluster lights along those streets.

The merchants' association has been strongly in favor of the cluster lights, and the meeting was for the purpose of presenting to the property owners the advantages of doing away with the present unsightly poles and the putting in of ornamental lights.

No decision was reached by those who were present as to what procedure should be followed.

WILL SEND BOYS TO HOME IN MISSOURI

Tom Patrun and Meredith Jones, the boys charged with stealing a robe and overcoat from Deputy District Attorney Koepsel, will probably be sent to their homes in Joplin, Mo. The boys are aged 16 and 18. They say they left their homes with the consent of their parents. Most of their time has been spent in hobo-life.

Probation Officer Scott telegraphed to their parents, explaining the predicament of the boys, and he has received a reply indicating that the money for their return fare will be forthcoming.

NO DYSPEPIA OR HEARTBURN

Indigestion Goes and Your Stomach Feels Fine in Five Minutes

—You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of Indigestion or Dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach, if you will take a little Diapiesin occasionally.

Your meals will taste good, and anything you eat will be digested; nothing can ferment or turn into acid or poison or stomach gas, which causes belching, dizziness, a feeling of fullness after eating, nausea, indigestion (like a lump of lead in stomach), biliousness, heartburn, water brash, pain in stomach and intestines or other symptoms.

Headaches from the stomach are absolutely unknown where this effective remedy is used. Diapiesin really does all the work of a healthy stomach. It digests your meals when your stomach can't. A single dose will digest all the food you eat and leave nothing to ferment or sour and upset the stomach.

Get a large 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from your druggist and start taking now, and in a little while you will actually brag about your healthy, strong stomach, for you then can eat anything and everything you want without the slightest discomfort or misery, and every particle of impurity and gas that is in your stomach and intestines is going to be carried away without the use of laxatives or any other assistance.

Should you at this moment be suffering from indigestion or any stomach disorder, you can surely get relief within five minutes.

Reply Is Made to Certain City
Trustees By the Former City Engineer

To the People of Santa Ana:
In regard to statements made by certain members of the City Council in regard to records of the city engineer's office, I make the following statement.

When I entered the employ of the city, Sept. 1, 1904, as assistant city engineer, under City Engineer V. L. Steward, there were few records of any description in the office.

When the office was moved to the new city hall, we laid our plans for a comprehensive system of keeping records.

All of the notes, maps and drawings in the office were left there by either H. Clay Kellogg, V. L. Steward or myself.

Mr. Kellogg left complete notes of all surveys for the sewer system and also notes of the work done by him.

Mr. Steward left notes of all work done by him.

Mr. Kellogg's note books are known as Book A, Book B, etc. The first one of Steward's note books is known as Book 1, and the first book in which my notes are recorded is Book 6.

All of the notes in books 1 to 30 inclusive, were made by V. L. Steward or myself, and I do not fear a thorough investigation, by competent persons, as to the condition of the office when I left it.

My assistants will testify that I had a complete record of all work done, and that same was fully indexed.

Any statements that I took records belonging to the office are absolutely false.

Mr. Balderson and myself are on friendly terms, and he has felt free to ask me about old lines and landmarks.

I am still a resident of Santa Ana and as such I expect to take a hand in the future of the city.

PLAN GREAT ROAD THROUGH CANADA

Of utmost importance to motorists of the entire Pacific Coast was the formation, at the recent New Westminster Good Roads Convention, of a Canadian Highway Association, for the purpose of establishing and constructing a great East-and-West road through Canada, ultimately reaching the Atlantic Coast.

Organization similar to that of the Pacific Highway Association was effected, and Hon. Thomas Taylor, "Good Roads" Taylor as he is known throughout the Dominion for his great record as British Columbia's Minister of Public Works, was elected honorary president. W. J. Kerr of New Westminster, one of the strongest highway enthusiasts in the northwest, was made active president.

The coming of the Canadian Highway brings great prospects for the coast, and particularly for California. During the winter, this great trunk road which will run the rich central provinces, will be the instrument of a migration of prosperous Canadian farmers to the sunny climate of the southwest, via automobile. The grain and other crops being harvested and marketed, they will have plenty of time for pleasant exploration of California and Mexico. And on the other hand, the Californian may avoid his own sultry summers by the same tour in the opposite direction, going north on the Pacific highway to Vancouver, thence east via the Canadian Highway to the hunting paradise of the Rockies and Kootenays and further into the big plains of Manitoba and Assiniboia. When the road is completed, such tours could be extended to the historic cities of Montreal and Quebec.

In no place does the Canadian Highway run farther than fifty miles north of the international boundary. Another significant fact is that its completion will give this part of the continent the longest continuous road in the world, the Canadian Highway 2000 miles and Pacific Highway joining it 2009 miles long.

It is a pledge of merriment unrestrained and entertainment without stint for persons of all ages, both sexes and whatsoever condition. Direct from the Astor Theater, New York, with the unprecedented record of a third year on Broadway, with the entire brilliant New York cast and superb Astor Theater production, the forthcoming presentation of "Seven Days" has features that heighten interest in the foremost popular success of the time. "Seven Days" has earned its wide favor from the thorough enjoyment it affords. It is exceptionally amusing, and as described by Amy Leslie in the Chicago Daily News is "one hilarious delight, a tornado of laughter, a freshet of fun, a hurricane of comedy." From the first moment to the last without break it creates laughter, and in a clean, wholesome manner, untouched by indelicacy, which is one of the many exceptional qualities of this altogether exceptional play. Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood, authors of "Seven Days," devised humor without vulgarity, which is so infrequent in play making as to merit marked commendation.

with Ontario and Pomona in working for a route through those cities and then diagonally across to Riverside. From here the road could go east to Beaumont, Banning and the Coachella and Imperial valleys, just as well as from San Bernardino and Redlands.

The Coachella valley people have not taken any stand regarding the route of the highway westward from the San Geronimo pass; the following is the appeal they have sent out and that point is made very clear:

"The executive committee of the board of trade of Indio, Coachella, Thermal and Mecca; Coachella valley, Riverside County, send you greetings relative to the location of the state highway connecting Southern California with Arizona and the east.

"We consider that said highway should by natural reason go through the pass at Beaumont and follow the Fremont trail and by easy stages connect with Imperial County and Yuma. For the following reasons:

"1. The proposed roadway will accommodate more population between Riverside, Redlands and Yuma, and will encourage more development of the territory through which it passes than any other route through Southern California to Arizona.

"2. The route passes through a larger territory, more capable of intensive cultivation than any other possible route.

"3. It is the shortest and most direct route.

"4. The cost of construction will be more economical because practically no grading will be required, since there is a natural grade. There will be less bridging necessary than for any other proposed route. The cost of ballasting material will be less, because an ample supply is immediately available at any point along the roadway. A railroad parallel to the proposed route guarantees ease of transportation of labor and supplies. The water supply is ample along the entire route.

"5. A less cost of maintenance is guaranteed by reason of available supply of material and labor being constantly on hand and flood losses saved by small rainfall and under-ground drainage."

"Home Builders"
Standards

One of the marked characteristics of "Home Builders" is its safe and sure earnings. It is in the wholesale building business, thus its stockholders make the usual builder's profits.

Its cardinal principles of no speculation, but instead, the investment of its stockholders' money in the financing of the home it builds, and securing the same by deeds, mortgages, contracts, etc., is just like you would do if you were loaning the money on mortgage, except all you would make would be your interest earnings.

"Home Builders" is really better than mortgage business because of its building profits.

Why worry about the collection of interest, rents, etc? Let "Home Builders" employ your money and you will get your dividend check regularly every three months, and on the basis of present price you will make better than 7 per cent which beats a mortgage.

Further Discussion of The State Highway Route

(FROM THE RIVERSIDE PRESS)

The Redlands Review makes two mistakes in discussing the route of the state highway system in this section. It says that Riverside is opposed to the road going east to Yuma by way of the Coachella and Imperial valleys, desiring it instead to run from Riverside to San Diego by the "inland route," and that the people in the Coachella valley favor the foothill route from Los Angeles to Redlands and thence through the pass to road down the coast from Los Angeles to San Diego and then across the mountains to Imperial County and on to Yuma. That would cut the eastern part of Riverside County off entirely. Riverside joins with the Coachella valley people in working for the route they desire and our supervisors have gone on record officially to that effect. Riverside is opposed to what is known as the "foothill route," because that would leave us off the line of the highway which would run

ADVERTISING NOTES

The application of advertising to business may be likened unto fertilizing an orange tree.

Without fertilizer, the tree will live a while, and for a short time may seem to flourish, and it will bear some fruit; but it will never bear a profitable crop, and in the end it will become barren and worthless.

So with the business that is not advertised.

On the other hand, pour fertilizer in judicious quantity, of good quality and at the right time at the root of the tree, and it will yield an ever-increasing golden harvest.

So with the business that is properly advertised.

Speaking of advertising, there is some exceptionally good advertising being done these days by Santa Ana business men in the Register. Take, for instance, the Rowley Drug Company's Friday and Saturday sales—the third of which is now on. The idea, the policy—yes the principle of these sales is good. A busy drug store is always a crowded place, and with a big stock of holiday goods coming, floor space and shelf space and show-case space and window space and counter space—all space is at a premium.

YOU get the premium, if you watch the advertising, make a list of goods that you now need or can use in the future and lay in a supply.

For the cuts in prices are genuine and deep, on dozens of lines of seasonable, up-to-date, new, clean goods.

And the Rowley Drug Company thus gets the money with which to discount its bills and reduce its interest account, and so the sales are profitable to both buyer and seller.

The ads. have been well-written; enough space has been used to attract attention and impress the reader; and, best of all, the store has lived up in spirit and in letter to its promises and proposals.

And the sales have been a big success.

Another bit of good recent advertising is that of the Crookshank-Beatty Dry Goods Co.

Mr. Beatty has been making a drive on ready-to-wear suits and waps. He has used a big space AND USED IT EVERY DAY. He had bought a big stock of goods and realized that the flood-tide of the season is short. So he went at it with a rush. His copy was short, snappy and convincing and his goods were as good as his copy.

Result: BIG SALES.

Lutz & Co., the tailors, have been running a series of "Talks on Tailoring" that were the talk of the town. They were just plain, strong, truthful statements and arguments such as a good salesman would make in talking to a customer. They succeeded in inducing many particular dressers to give Lutz & Co. a trial—and of course they made good every time and gained many permanent new customers.

The advent of Lane's Furniture Store into the advertising field is a distinct economic gain to the people of the county. For Mr. Lane has a splendid stock of goods and hitherto he has seldom if ever made any considerable reductions in prices or offered any special inducements. The big sale he has just put on puts this fine stock on the market for Christmas buying and home furnishing at prices that are very attractive. Mr. Lane has not been a very strong believer in advertising, but like most wise men he has at last changed his mind. The full page ad. he ran last Wednesday was certainly a hummer.

The First National Bank is running some mighty good "copy" these days—all the banks are, for that matter—but the First National's ads are exceptionally good. They are dignified in tone, convincing in argument and strikingly displayed—enough space being used to permit of the use of large plain type and heavy borders without crowding.

One of the best financial ads we have seen in many days was that of Chas. H. Leonard, general agent for the Commonwealth Home Builders of Los Angeles, in last Tuesday's Register.

The line of talk handed out, while very seductive, had the ring of sincerity and truth.

The arrangement of the matter was admirable, and the amount of space used was enough to give the ad weight, impact, in comparison side from a battleship compared with a popgun shot.

These random notes on a few of the high lights in the local advertising field are not intended to be either comprehensive or discriminative—they are just jotted down in all sincerity in the hope that they will be helpful to business. There are many other advertisements and advertisers will worthy of mention and they will receive notice in due season.

Select furniture for Christmas gifts at Lane's big furniture sale. Music cabinets, ladies' writing desks, library and center tables, dressing tables, Turkish rockers, Morris chairs and hundreds of other articles suitable for holiday gifts, at great reductions. Lane's, 303-305 West Fourth St.

X-RAY FOR RODGERS

PASADENA, Nov. 18—Aviator Calbraith P. Rodgers complained of a pain in his breast last night, and physicians ordered him taken to a hospital, where X-ray photographs of his breastbone were taken.

It was thought possible that his breastbone might have been dislocated in his fall last Sunday when he was trying to end his ocean-to-ocean trip by flying from Pasadena to Long Beach.

Rodgers' physicians have not been satisfied with his condition, and while using the X-ray to determine if his breastbone might have been dislocated, they utilized that device also to learn the condition of his injured ankles.

A NEW VERSION OF OLD TRAGEDY

Orange News: A new version of the old tragedy, Enoch Arden was played out here yesterday with action as compelling as was ever introduced into the master poet's work. A ruined home and a broken heart, love and renunciation were interwoven in the theme, and the curtain fell upon a man going away to forget.

L. A. Woodworth came to Orange with his wife in the summer of 1910. He worked at day labor for a time, then leased a ranch in Silverado canyon and took charge of the Villa Park and El Modena water development work.

Woodworth was physically a man among men. Symmetrically proportioned, he weighed near 225 pounds. His bearing bespoke marvelous strength and he possessed it. He was a clever boxer and had once acted as sparring partner to Corbett, the heavyweight champion. His devotion to the plain little wife was often the subject of comment, and by his own declaration, they were as happy as could be.

On the horizon, however, stalked Tragedy. The wife had been married before, and had secured a divorce when her husband became a convict. It is said that she was a Catholic and could not negotiate a second marriage in the church while her husband lived. Woodworth was not a Catholic.

Eventually the term of the first husband expired and he set out to seek his former wife. He enlisted her mother, and the two, is it said, won the woman from Woodworth. The end came yesterday when the mother took her daughter to Los Angeles. Woodworth, unsuspectingly, saw them to the car, intending that his wife would return home with him. Instead she went on the car with her mother. Later the husband received a note telling of her intention to separate from him. He found the wedding ring in a cup at their home.

The big fellow was heartbroken today as he told of the trouble. He left at noon for San Francisco, saying that he might go to Alaska. His happiness, he declared, was at an end and he would return to the old roving life of the days before his marriage.

Doings In Social and Club Circles

For Husband's Birthday

Mrs. L. H. Findeisen entertained a few friends Friday evening in honor of her husband's sixty-sixth birthday. The rooms were festively decorated with roses, chrysanthemums and ferns. Mr. Findeisen was the recipient of several gifts attesting the friendship of the guests.

The evening was enjoyably passed by playing progressive "500," after which the hostess served a sumptuous repast. Those present besides host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. John Holt, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Squier.

Rooters From Santa Ana

A large share of Santa Ana's population left this morning for Claremont Alumni field to yell in the Pomona-Occidental football game that has been the chief topic of college sporting circles for considerable time past. Santa Ana is divided as to allegiance, some of the families having representatives in the Pomona college and others in Occidental. But all will do some tail rooting, and ice cream sodas sufficient to stock a modern soft refreshment dispensary, have been wagered on the result, not to mention anything more substantial.

Among those going from here were Arthur and Anna McFadden, who joined Billy Jenks at Garden Grove, going from there in the Jenks machine; P. L. Andrews and family, making the trip to Pomona in the family automobile; J. T. Raitt and family, accompanied by Carson Smart, going by auto; Miss Jennie in the McFadden machine with Mr. and Mrs. John McFadden, Jr., as guests. Lamont McFadden and Carl Hankey went up to the scene of action last evening, and will remain over Sunday.

Orange County Conservatory of Music

The following and last breathing exercise which we shall give most nearly resembles that control of the breath which is employed in singing. The inspiration should be the same as for Exercise IV, i. e., the complete breath. Care should be taken not to overexert or render any muscle whatsoever tense. Breathing too full will cause a contraction and pressure about the throat which condition is absolutely fatal to pure and free tone production.

After the inhalation stop all movement and count three. Then with as slow, elastic and gradual a lifting movement of the diaphragm as possible, let the breath be directed through the lips in a fine, steady strain, as if one were letting it through the tiniest straw. The object is to acquire an absolutely steady, flexible and masterly control of the diaphragm which in turn controls the output of the breath that is later vibrated, then resonated and through these processes becomes vocal tone. Thus, in gaining a mastery of the diaphragm one gains a mastery of the voice itself.

On next Friday evening the Conservatory will present a varied program in the Garden Grove High School auditorium under the auspices and for the benefit of the Baptist church of that place. All are invited to come. Reserved seats 25 cents; unreserved 15 cents. 504 1/2 N. Main St. Main 214

Jenks of Garden Grove, president and secretary respectively of the board of overseers of the Pomona College alumni, will attend a meeting of the overseers in Claremont this evening, and make their return tomorrow.

High School Doings

The High School has been lively this week with social functions, meetings and visits from outsiders, not to speak of the interest that every loyal high school boy or girl has been feeling in the big football game today with San Diego. Last night the annual reception of the sophomores to the freshmen took place in the reception hall of the high school, which was gay with the colors of the two classes, palms and wreathings of smilax. Frank West, president of the sophomores, welcomed the freshmen, and response was made by President Albert Plavin of the freshmen class. Miss Gailene Finley rendered a pretty piano solo and Miss Allie Hallett Taylor gave a reading in her charming style. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served and progressive conversation was the diversion of the evening.

On Thursday afternoon, Prof. Greenleaf, reader and lecturer on dramatic themes, gave a couple of readings before the high school students, one of these being from the Merchant of Venice and the other being Riley's "That Old Sweetheart of Mine."

Yesterday afternoon a rousing rally, apropos of the game today, was held in the assembly hall. Prof. Ratcliffe and Miss Shatto each made an enthusiastic speech, which were vigorously applauded. Manager Malcolm Telford also made an animated talk. The prize of $5 offered to the student who should sell the most tickets for the game, was awarded to John Newcomer, who sold 75 tickets. Mr. Newcomer also presided over the meeting as president of the student body.

Jolly Box Social

Everybody had a jolly time at the Brotherhood Hall last night at a successful box social. There was a good turnout of members and friends, and all the boxes were sold. They were also full to the brim and contained some mighty fine suppers.

Sid Purcell with the violin and Leora Buchanan furnished music for the occasion, and the numerous encores they received indicated that everybody enjoyed their efforts.

Three new candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the society. The Poppies are still in the lead being about 800 points ahead.

Next Friday evening the regular monthly dance will be given and the public is cordially invited to attend this pleasant function.

Philharmonic Society

The Philharmonic Society will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the Congregational church, instead of Tuesday evening, on account of the European meeting the latter night. A full attendance is requested.

Returns From Eastern Visit

Geo. L. Wright, the transfer man, returned from a month's trip to the Atlantic coast, visiting relatives in Richmond, Va., New York City, Washington, D. C., and other eastern points. Mr. Wright says he ran into cold weather on the return trip, finding the worst in Kansas City last Sunday.

Mr. Wright missed his brother, Will Wright, who is at the head of one of the Henry W. Savage companies, but on his return found a letter from his theatrical relative saying that he was bringing "The Girl of the Golden West" to Los Angeles to show there in the near future.

Does a Man Own Himself?

Rev. Charles H. Seecombe will discuss this important question in his lecture-sermon to young people tomorrow evening at the Congregational church.

Travelers' Class

Travelers' Class No. 1 will meet Monday afternoon, Nov. 20, with Mrs. E. B. Smith, 106 South Birch street.

Revels in Snow Drifts

Mrs. Susan H. Burns, mother of C. W. and E. B. Burns, who is spending the winter in the East, is at present at Cedarvale, Ohio. She writes the following characteristic and breezy little note:

"I am having the time of my life, reveling in snow-drifts. It is like twenty-five years ago, or even fifty years, at the time of the war, and is a great reminder of childhood days."

A Delightful Surprise

Mrs. Dode Hunter was greatly surprised at her home Friday evening, in honor of her eighteenth birthday. A number of her friends were present. Light refreshments were served and the presents received were table linen.

Those present were: Crystal Morrison, Florence Buck, Ruby Kraschel, Georgia Mansur, Lina Mentzel, Roxie Flowers, Laura Young, Dora Milligan, Alice Hunter, Mae Inman, Ethel Inman, Mr. True Kimball, Lee Buck, Dwight Flowers, Jacob Flagentneger, C. F. Mentzel, Dave Mansur, Dode Hunter, Elmer Inman, James Seelye, Edgar Morris, Jossia Inman, Bert Mansur and Mr. and Mrs. Inman.

Methodism and Catholicity

At the morning service at "The Church of the Messiah" tomorrow, the Rector will read the farewell sermon which a Methodist minister recently preached to his congregation, when he was leaving that denomination to read for "Holy Orders" in the Church. This sermon is a contribution to the cause of Christian unity, and is a courteous and definite statement of the historical and ethical reasons which have led him to take this step. It deals with certain historical facts which ought to be generally known, but which are frequently ignored when dealing with the question of church membership. You are cordially invited to be present.

WARNING

School Children and Others
Should Refrain From Trespassing

It would be well to speak to the children, warning them not to trespass in the orange orchards on their way to and from school, as the ranchers are being troubled to a great extent in this way at the present time. They complain of this matter not merely because of the value of the fruit taken, but because of the damage done to the trees by the reckless pulling off of the fruit, and the breaking of large branches.

SILVER MEDAL CONTEST TO BE HELD TUESDAY

The silver medal contest which was held in Tustin last week will be repeated in Myford, at the schoolhouse, next Tuesday evening, Nov. 21, with the addition of another contestant from that place.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH SANTA ANA?

Under the above head lines there was, recently, published in the Register, an article copied from the Los Angeles Tribune, in which our town was characterized as a place where the idle seeker after pleasure could not find entertainment or fun and so we lose that kind of business that is so much sought after in Riverside, and the plaintiff in the case is substantially correct.

We have a good thing down here and we know it. We do things for our own pleasure and profit and are willing that everybody else should come in and help make business and enjoy the fun that goes with it.

Other towns are content to live on climate and strangers, but Santa Ana wants to see the country round-about developed and then see that the town keeps step with the country, and we all enjoy doing it. If the tourist wants to see something interesting and wants to know what our climate will produce, tell him to visit Hill's corner at the Kansas Tin Shop and interview the writer hereof and he will find one who was, when he came here, almost ready to surrender, but is now worth a dozen dead men!

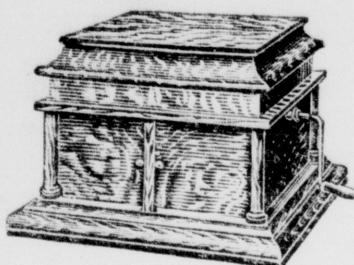

Then we can, perhaps sell him (or her) some hardware, where-with to build a house or, mayhap, sell a half acre to put the house on. Climate and strangers do fairly well, but climate, health and busi-

LECTURED ON HIS RELIGION

Christian Science Speaker Addressed Audience at the Grand Opera House

Bliss Knapp, Christian Science lecturer at the Grand Opera House last night was introduced by Dr. C. O. Fletcher, of this city, who spoke as follows:

"Christian Science is a subject that is attracting the attention of the whole world. Christian Science—a religion simple and pure, it comes to us open-handed with a message of love and truth. The same Truth that Jesus brought and demonstrated to the world centuries ago. It comes as the scriptures say, 'with healing in its wings.' It is the same truth that Jesus said, 'ye shall know and it shall make you free.'"

"It brings surcease from sorrow and suffering and gives to us instead joy and peace and happiness."

"An unfoldment of this Christ Truth in the consciousness of man heals sickness and sin as it did in Jesus time."

"After seventeen years of the study and practice of medicine and surgery I have learned from the earnest study and application of the truths as taught in the Christian Science text book Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, that it is more potent to heal than any other agency. It has proven efficient in every instance where it has been honestly applied."

"My family and myself have been healed by Christian Science of many afflictions both acute and chronic after materia medica was a complete failure."

"Christian Science is the religion of love. It teaches us how to love our neighbor as ourselves. It also teaches us how to love our enemies, and that is one of its greatest benefactions."

"In order that we might hear this subject discussed with authority and from an unprejudiced source a board of lecturers has been established by The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist of Boston, Mass. 'We have with us tonight one who is a member of this board, and I am sure he has a message for every honest heart and mind open to Truth in this audience tonight.'"

"I bespeak for him an attentive and respectful hearing. I take pleasure in introducing the speaker for this evening, Bliss Knapp, C. S. B., of Boston, Mass."

The lecturer said:

Not An Opinion

Many people have asked the question, 'How do you know that Christian Science is not the result of an opinion?' We might to advantage draw some analogy from mathematics. The text-book writer of mathematics confines himself to stating the facts concerning the mathematical law with such accuracy and truth that when understood and obeyed they may be demonstrated. Even so Mrs. Eddy confined herself to stating the facts concerning the divine law or 'Spirit of truth' with such precision and simplicity that when understood and obeyed, they may be demonstrated in healing all manner of sickness and sin."

Mrs. Eddy Honored

It may be of interest to learn that the simple reading of Science and Health has healed disease and sin. This is the more notable since it is the only book since the writings of the primitive Christians to effect cures of mind and body by the simple study and contemplation of its truths. The last chapter of this text-book, called 'Fruitage,' contains a hundred pages of testimonials in evidence of the fact that the simple study of the book has healed such diseases as consumption, locomotor ataxia, cancers, tumors, curvature of the spine, and so on. In recognition of her distinguished services the French government has honored Mrs. Eddy by causing M. Briand, at that time minister of public instruction and fine arts, to decorate Mrs. Eddy officer of the French Academy. It is a most fitting way of recognizing in her a worthy interpreter of the Bible. This Christian Science text-book is not a Bible, and it can never displace the Bible. Its sole purpose is to unlock the spiritual meaning of the Bible as to reveal the power of its eternal truths, in order that all may employ them for healing and reformation."

Disease Mental

Mrs. Eddy has presented the understanding of this Christ law with such simplicity and accuracy that even the children and young people can gain its spiritual meaning which reveals the power and presence of God, and thereby liberates them from suffering and sin of every sort. This is on the basis that the cause of disease is mental. Diseases of a mysterious sort are today on the increase and some are considered by many to be incurable. Christian Science heals all such diseases. It is possibly true that seventy-five per cent of those who are Christian Scientists today have been healed by its ministrations after reputable physicians have given them up as being beyond all hope of recovery, and all on the basis of the Christian Science teaching that disease in its cause is not physical but mental. Consumption, for example, is considered by many to be an incurable disease. It is considered that no known drug or medicine can heal consumption in its advanced stages. There is the usual method of today is to resort to what is known as the nature cure, outdoor life, exercise, and pure air are resorted to in the hope of abating the white plague, as it is called. It is generally conceded that consumption is largely a consuming fear and manifestly no drug or medicine can cure fear. The Bible declares that 'fear hath torment' but 'perfect love casteth out fear.' One of the largest factors in all disease is fear, and there is no known remedy for fear of any sort, save only the tenderness and compassion of unselfed Love. It is that understanding of God as divine Love that enables the Christian Scientist to cast out the fear of consumption and destroy its physical effects. On this same basis Christian Science heals cancers, tumors, pneumonia, locomotor ataxia, etc.—heals them permanently. The carnal so-called mind cannot effect a permanent cure because this carnal mind is the source, origin, and cause of disease, and the same mind which produces disease cannot destroy it. If there seems to be a cure it is a case of a greater error covering up but not healing a lesser error."

These fruits of Christian Science, spread over a period of nearly half a century, have done more to change the thought of the world to higher ideals than any religious statement or teaching of modern times. They have challenged attention to the fact that spiritual teaching improves the health as well as the morals of men. Such divine characteristics as health and life, which are reflected through man, can no more be annulled, disintegrated, or destroyed than can God Himself, and we save ourselves by the conscious recognition of that fact."
